

GUIDE TO TRAINERS APPLICATION PACK

This pack contains;

- a Trainers licence application form
- the Trainers requirements document which details the documentation required to allow an application for a NSW Trainers licence to be considered

Would you please obtain the relevant documentation as listed on the form before contacting the local NSW stewards in your area (or the Racing NSW Licensing Supervisor for Metropolitan applicants) using the contact details below to arrange for an interview. The application fee of $100 is due on the day of interview.

Metropolitan/Kembla/Hawkesbury	02 9551 7585	Mid North Coast (MNCRA)	02 6581 1476
Gosford/Wyong/Newcastle	02 4969 1515	Northern Rivers (NRRRA)	02 6642 7661
Broken Hill & Far West (BHFWRRA)	08 8087 7550	South East (SERA)	02 6241 3596
Central Districts (CDRA)	02 6885 2111	Southern District (SDRA)	02 6921 6244
Hunter & North West (HNWRA)	02 6762 2035	Western (WRA)	02 6885 2111

At the time of your interview, you will need to provide:

- Trainers Application Form
- Application fee $100
- References and other material as outlined in the requirements document

It is recommended that you obtain a copy of 1) Rules of Racing (available on the Racing NSW website www.racingsw.com.au) and 2) Racing NSW magazine (available from the Publications Department, Racing NSW, Level 7, 51 Druitt Street, Sydney NSW 2000, at a cost of $14), as you will be required to complete a written examination on the day of your interview.

Racing NSW also requires the completion by trainers of the Certificate IV Trainers course which is from the RGR08 National Training Package. All new Trainers will be required to complete the following modules of the course before being granted a Trainers licence;

- RGRCMN203 - Comply with racing industry ethics and integrity
- RGRPSH408 - Manage horse health and welfare
- BSBWHS301 - Maintain workplace safety
- Two further modules as identified by Racing NSW

The remaining modules of the course will then be required to be completed within a timeframe set by Racing NSW if they haven't done so before their licence is granted. An assessment of those applicants who have previously held a Trainers licence (which will include the period of time a licence was held and the time elapsed since last registered) will be conducted to determine whether the applicant is exempted from completing the course, or required to complete selected modules of the course. This assessment may also apply to trainers moving from Interstate. For new Trainers required to complete the entire CIV Course, further information is available from the Racing NSW Training by email at careers@racingsw.com.au

- i) That I shall not be exempted from personal liability arising under the Rules of Racing for or by any reason whatsoever.
- j) For those Trainers who ride trackwork, to as directed by the Stewards provide any sample either prior to or subsequent to riding in any track work for the purpose of detecting any substance banned under the Rules.
- k) To adhere to as a minimum, the "Horse & Greyhound Training Award 2010 (Commonwealth)", and to keep wages and payment records for all employees and persons engaged under contract for service and make those records available for inspection when required by Racing NSW.
- l) The requirement to have satisfactory and current insurances of the type as reasonable may be required by the Principal Racing Authority including but not limited to Workers Compensation, Public Liability & Professional Indemnity, Personal Accident insurances .
- m) That I will make written application and obtain approval from Racing NSW before stabling any horse in my care at any address other than at my registered stable premises.
- n) That any information provided in this application may be shared with the Racing NSW Insurance Fund for the purpose of administering any workers compensation claim lodged by me or any person claiming to be my employee and that the Racing NSW Insurance Fund is authorised to provide any information regarding any workers compensation claim lodged by me to the Licensing Department of Racing NSW for the purpose of assessing my continuing eligibility or fitness to hold a licence.
- o) Subject to AR.278(1) if a licensed person is disqualified his or her licence immediately ceases and determines and he or she must make application to the Principal Racing Authority to be relicensed.
- p) A disqualified person is and remains bound by, and subject to, the Rules for the period of his or her disqualification.
- q) I agree that any additional condition/s placed on my licence during a previous licence period will continue to apply in regard to the duration of this licence and any future issue of licence, with such condition being removed only upon receipt of written notification of such from Racing NSW or when any advised expiry date of the condition/s, unless extended, has passed.

GST

When the licensee is GST registered, the following agreement is given:

- The recipient may issue tax invoices in respect of the specified supplies.
- The supplier will not issue tax invoices in respect to those supplies.
- The supplier acknowledges that it is registered when it enters into the agreement and that it will notify the recipient if it ceases to be registered.
- The recipient acknowledges that it is registered when it enters into the agreement and that it will notify the supplier if it ceases to be registered.

25. CONDITIONS OF LICENCE – RIDING HORSES

Stablehands and Trainers applying to ride trackwork will be required to undergo a Racing NSW trackwork rider competency assessment;

- i) With their initial application to ride trackwork
- ii) Again, in the season after reaching 60 years of age and every two years thereafter. When reaching *70 years of age the assessment will be required yearly
- iii) At any time if required by Racing NSW after returning from injury

Upon reaching 60 years of age and every two years thereafter, Stablehands and Trainers riding trackwork will be required to provide a medical clearance as to their fitness to ride which will include a physical test. When reaching *70 years of age these provisions will be required annually.

Note the 60 yrs+ and 70 yrs+ requirement is effective at the next renewal period following that birthday*

26. CONDITIONS OF LICENCE – STABLE & HORSE HANDLING DUTIES

Stable work and the caring for and handling of horses is a physically demanding profession. All licensees have a responsibility to assess whether they are and remain physically capable of performing the required tasks of the role. Trainers in the season after reaching 75 years of age and every year thereafter will be required to yearly undertake a medical and practical physical assessment as part of their licence or renewal application.

*Duty of care statement

Trainers should carefully consider their capability to perform the tasks required to care for Thoroughbred racehorses especially if they wish to continue performing the required tasks once reaching the age of 75 years. Trainers, should carefully consider their capability to ride Thoroughbred racehorses especially if they wish to continue riding beyond the age of 60 years. If Racing NSW issues a licence to the applicant, this does not amount to a representation to, or endorsement of, the applicant concerning his or her current fitness to perform stable duties, handle horses, or ride (if registered in that capacity) thoroughbred racehorses. Trainers and Stablehands should form and rely on their own view concerning their own fitness to perform stable duties, handle horses or ride (if licensed in that capacity) based on their knowledge of their current physical capabilities, advice from their own medical practitioners and their knowledge of their intended role drawing from their past experience. Racing NSW is not responsible for a licensee's physical condition and decision to perform stable duties, handle horses or ride (if licensed in that capacity). If at any time a licensee's condition changes so that he or she suspects he or she may again be physically unable to perform stable duties, handle horses or ride (if licensed in that capacity) to the required level, he or she should immediately discontinue such activities, inform Racing NSW and consult his or her medical practitioner.

PRIVACY AND THE USE, COLLECTION AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Principal Racing Authorities collect information about you when you submit this Application and in the course of related enquiries made of third parties for the purposes of the Thoroughbred Racing Act 1996 (NSW). The Principal Racing Authorities will use that information to assess your application and, if registration is approved, your ongoing status as a licensed person. To do that, the Principal Racing Authorities may disclose your information to third parties such as your employers (past, present or prospective), other racing bodies, appeal bodies, wagering service providers, industry associations and government enforcement agencies (including but not limited to law enforcement agencies) if the Principal Racing Authorities believe that the disclosure is reasonably necessary for your ongoing status as a licensed person or to enable PRAs to fulfil their regulatory responsibilities and/or promote and protect the integrity of the sport to ensure compliance with the Rules of Racing. The Principal Racing Authorities may also use or disclose information about you for a secondary purpose if they reasonably believe that the secondary use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for one or more enforcement related activities conducted by, or on behalf of, an enforcement body. You do not have to supply the information requested in this application, but if the information (or any part of it) is not provided your application may be rejected. You can gain access to and request that corrections be made to information held about you by the Principal Racing Authorities. By completing and submitting this application, you authorise the Principal Racing Authorities to collect, use and disclose information about you (including injury reports) for the purposes described in this notice, including the usual publication of such information in race books, racing calendars and other publications that can include (but are not limited to) websites.

Intellectual property

I agree that the Principal Racing Authorities will own all intellectual property in the information I submit with and in connection with this application for, and the grant and future maintenance of, the Licence, and I hereby assign to the Principal Racing Authorities (and warrant that I am authorised to provide and assign) all such intellectual property and information and acknowledge that the Principal Racing Authorities may use (including by collating, modifying, publishing and distributing) all such intellectual property and information as it sees fit including" Note: for Licensed Persons this information relates to the usual publication of material in race books, racing calendars, publications and websites etc. Any information outside this standard will not be released by Racing NSW without the written permission of the Licensed person.

CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECK

All new licence applicants are subject to Criminal History Record checks. Existing licensees may also be requested to undergo such checks. The information contained in these records may lead to the licence application being refused.
